

Mark Your Calendars: Registration for NACM's 126th Credit Congress & Expo is Under Way

NACM's 126th Credit Congress & Expo takes place June 5-8, 2022, at the Kentucky International Convention Center in Louisville, KY. Attendees will have the opportunity to network with other credit professionals and expand their credit knowledge by attending a wide variety of educational sessions.

Topics range from construction credit to navigating bankruptcies post-Covid. And there will be plenty of time to meet with your peers and exhibitors to learn about newest industry trends. Attendees also will have the opportunity to obtain CEUs to maintain their professional certifications.

NACM is offering an extra-special discount in honor of our 126th annual event. Any first-time attendee who attends with a fully paid delegate can register for only $126. Both delegates must have separate rooms at the host hotel, The Galt House, to qualify. By taking advantage of this opportunity, attendees will have the opportunity to share a unique experience with team members in their company who have not had the chance to attend.

On June 6, Mark S. Babbitt and S. Chris Edmunds, authors of Good Comes First, will officially kick off the 2022 conference with their keynote address during the general session. Mark and Chris will provide actionable inspiration to help understand how to build a team of good people, doing good work, in a good company. By attending this keynote, you'll learn the keys to creating an uncompromising culture and defining what "good" means to your organization. Attendees will have the option to purchase their book at the registration desk at any time (while supplies last), and speak face-to-face with the authors following the general session.

Credit Congress attendees should register by Dec. 31 to take advantage of early bird savings. You can find out more details about sessions, speakers and exhibitors on the NACM website.
