CFDD Scholarship Guidelines

- A. CFDD's Scholarship year is January 1 through December 31.
- B. As part of CFDD's mission, CFDD will award scholarships to support its members' pursuit of education.
- C. Scholarships awards will be funded by proceeds from fundraising efforts, contributions, interest or dividends earned by the fund. The target total of available funds to disburse in the form of scholarships will be based on prior year fundraising efforts and contributions.
- D. The total fund will not drop below $100,000. Each time awards are recommended that drop the value of the fund below $100,000, the CFDD Board must first approve knowingly allowing the fund to drop below the $100,000 floor and then approve the recommended award.
- E. To be eligible to apply for and be awarded a CFDD National Scholarship, the applicant must be a CFDD member in good standing (defined as uninterrupted membership status) at the time of submitting the application and on the date of the event for which the scholarship is awarded.
- F. Provided that funds are available to award, scholarship applications will be accepted on an as needed basis. The CFDD Board of Directors may adjust the dates by which scholarship applications are due and may adjust the number of times scholarship applications will be accepted within a scholarship year.
- G. To support conference schedules, scholarship applications must be timely received by the prescribed date to be considered.
- H. Any recipient of a CFDD Scholarship must attend a minimum of 80% of available conference educational sessions or complete the request supported. CFDD members who receive a scholarship to attend NACM's Credit Congress are required to attend the Annual Awards & Installation Luncheon. CFDD National Conference scholarship recipients are required to attend the CFDD Business Meeting held at the CFDD National Conference. Any recipient who fails to appropriately use their redeemed scholarship award, such as failure to attend a minimum of 80% of available conference educational sessions or the CFDD Business Meeting at the CFDD National Conference, may be excluded from any future eligibility for CFDD National Scholarship Awards.
- I. Course Scholarship Award recipients must complete the awarded course within 12 months of the date of the award or the date of receipt of course material, whichever comes first. Non-completion within 12 months may disqualify the member from future eligibility for National Scholarship awards.
- J. Members are eligible to attend only one conference (CFDD National Conference, NACM Credit Congress or NACM Affiliate Conference) using a CFDD National Scholarship per calendar year.
